

- Mexican dollars—
 Continued
 China, 59S;
 restrictions imposed in
 French Indo-China, 608
 Mexico, early monetary history of, 480; the banking act of 1S97, 482; separation of banks from the state, 483; creation of the Central Bank of Mexico, 485; appointment of monetary commission to consider metallic standard, 487; negotiations with European powers, 488; monetary reform of 1904, 490-93; changes in character of metallic money stock, 495; changes in banking law in 1908, 496; banking statistics, 497
 Mexico, National Bank of, foundation, 481; surrenders special privileges, 484; resources of, 497
 Michigan, wildcat banking in, 376-77
 Middle Ages, inherited banking methods from antiquity, 6; position of the Jews in, 14
 Mississippi Company. See Compagnie des Indes.
 Mississippi, failure of State banks in, 382-83
 Missouri, banking in, 385
 Monetary Commission, Indianapolis, membership and report, 430-31; authorized by Aldrich-Vreeland law, 445; appointed in Mexico in 1903, 487; appointed by Japan in 1893, 560
 Monetary conferences, international, in 1878, 675; in 1881, 675; in 1892, 676
 Montreal, Bank of, foundation, 449; issues provincial notes, 457; favors secured circulation, 458; guarantees liabilities of Ontario Bank, 469; guarantees advances to banks in 1907, 476
 Morgan, J. Pierpont, syndicate contract with Treasury in 1895, 690-92; subscription to loan of 1896, 694; organizes United States Steel Corpora-

tion, 709; averts disaster in 1907, 714 Morocco, State Bank of, 541 Morris, Robert, founds Bank of North America, 335 Mortgages as security for banknotes. Sec Land N Naples, Bank of, foundation, 20; illegal circulation in 1893, 22; limitation of note issues, 25; balance- sheet of, 31 Nassau Bank provides currency for Bahamas, 532 Natal, banking in, 550 Nation, Bank of the, established in Argentine Republic, 507; aids in restoring stability of exchange, 510 National banking system of the United States, comparison with State systems, 392-94; originates in difficulties of the Treasury, 397-405; Secretary Chase's plans, 400; rules governing circulation, 408; taxation of State notes, 411-12; changes in circulation, 413-15; extension of charters, 419; effect of Bland Act and Sherman	Act, 421; redemption of notes, 422; examination s, 423; plans of reform under President Cleveland, 425; Bal- timore plan, 426; plan of Secretary Carlisle, 427; pro- posals of Indianapolis Monetary Commissio n, 431; changes made by Act of 1900, 432; increase of small banks, 434; progress of circulation from 1896 to 1908, 435; re- formatory measures of New York Chamber of Commerce, 439; proposals of American Bankers' Association, 440; measure of Representat ive Fowler, 441; changes in security for notes under Aldrich- Vreeland law, 443; appoint- ment of National Monetary Commission , 445; lack of facilities for retirement of
---	--